

GYMNASTICS

Impact teams do well

Special to The Community News

Impact Gym's level 6 team competed in the World Olympic Gymnastics Academy Invitational in Frisco Feb. 8-9 and stole the show on floor exercise.

Aubrey Miller placed 1st on floor with a score of 9.75. Also placing were Adelaide Lovett 4th with a 9.65, Emily McSwain 7th with a 9.55, Abby Dodson 8th with a 9.525, and Jordan Prokell 9th with a 9.5. Only 10 gymnasts at the competition placed on floor exercise and five were from Impact. Their scores were close - ranging from 9.5-9.75.

Jordan Prokell placed 2nd on bars, Aubrey Miller placed 3rd on beam, and Baylee Crimmings (level 7) and Leah Rogers (level 6) both placed 6th on beam.

Impact's levels 1-4 TAAF gymnasts are off to a great season. Brooklyn Clapp (level 4) placed 1st on vault, bars, floor and all-around and 2nd on beam. Mallory Morrison (level 4) placed 1st on beam, 2nd all-around, 4th floor and 5th bars. Level 1s Reagan Wright finished 1st on beam, 2nd floor and 1st all-around and Sophie Cohen finished 1st on vault.

Impact's level 1 and level 2 teams also won the 2nd place team award and the level 3 team won 3rd place.