PARKER COUNTY - Impact Athletic Training Center is collecting soccer balls in memory of Zeb Montgomery, an Aledo 9th grader who recently lost his fight against leukemia. Zeb dreamed of collecting 1,000 soccer balls to donate to underprivileged children around the world. The first soccer ball from Zeb's campaign was delivered to Africa this week. As an official collection center, Impact has asked every athlete in the gym to donate a soccer ball. Members of the community may also drop soccer balls by Impact.

Impact is also holding its 3rd annual canned food drive benefiting The Center of Hope.

Community members may place items in the collection bins at Impact, 100 Nu Energy Drive in Aledo, Monday-Friday from 1p.m.-8p.m. or on Saturdays 9 a.m.-1 p.m. through December 19.
