ALEDO — Impact Athletic Training celebrated World Down Syndrome Day for the third consecutive year Monday.

Athletes and staff participated in “Crazy Sock Day” to support those living with Down syndrome.

This year was the 11th anniversary of World Down Syndrome Day, annually on March 21, or 21:3, to signify the triplication of chromosome 21 unique to persons with Down syndrome.

Down Syndrome International encourages supporters to choose activities and events to help raise awareness of Down syndrome.
