

WILLOW PARK CLEANUP

GINGER ADAMS/SPECIAL TO THE COMMUNITY NEWS

Residents of Willow Park got together on Memorial Day weekend to clean up the municipal areas around city hall, the public safety building and the playground. They also included the veteran's memorial and the demonstration garden. Shown are (front row) Amy Fennell, Autumn Fennell, Ava Fennell, Ginger Adams, Jackson Adams and Kip Speck; and (back row) Miltzi Gholson, Jason Fennell, Mike Lowe and John Gholson.

Impact Athletic Training Center to celebrate Olympic Day

Nearly 2,000 events nationwide will celebrate the birth of the modern Olympic Games

Special to The Community News

The spirit of the Olympic Movement will roll into Aledo, as Impact Athletic Training Center hosts an Olympic field day in celebration of Olympic Day. Impact's event is one of nearly 2,000 events taking place nationwide during the month of June.

Impact's free community event will take place from 1:30-3 p.m. Friday, June 17 at 100 Nu Energy Dr. Before the field day activities begin, Willow Park Mayor Pro Tem Gene Martin will kick off the event with opening remarks and invite everyone to gather for a photo opportunity celebrating Olympic Day. Photos from events across the country will be shared via social media by the Olympic Day 2016 organization.

"We are excited to take part in Olympic Day and inspire kids in our community," said Sydnie Evans, Impact owner and team director. "Impact is proud to support the Olympic Movement and encourage children to lead healthy, active lives."

Impact gymnasts will compete in a mini gymnastics meet while other attendees compete in long jump, relay races, soccer, and volleyball.

Olympic Day, created in 1948 to commemorate the birth of the modern Olympic Games, focuses on the Olympic values and ideals such as fair play, perseverance, respect and sportsmanship. Around the world, more than 160 countries take part in the annual celebration.
